

Daniel P. Kelly

Executive Vice President, Global Products

Daniel (Dan) P. Kelly, 48, is executive vice president of global products at Tellabs since 2007. In this role, Kelly has global responsibility for Tellabs' products, including research and development, product line management and product-specific marketing.

Previously, Kelly was executive vice president of transport products. He also served as executive vice president of core products at Tellabs. Kelly joined Tellabs in 1985 and has held a series of increasingly responsible positions in product engineering and research and development.

Kelly holds a Master of Science degree from the University of Notre Dame, a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Chicago and a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering. He is a member of Eta Kappa Nu and Beta Gamma Sigma honor societies. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Lincoln Foundation for Performance Excellence.
